this volume represents a unique addition to the growing body of empirical literature on materials development adopting a reverse approach to the topic rather than applying theory to practice practitioners and researchers from 11 countries reappraise applied linguistics theories through practice the book also provides evidence for the diversity of materials development around the globe at different levels for different specialities and for different purposes each chapter surveys the relevant literature such as task based learning and language and culture describes a specific research project reports the results of the project and discusses the implications of these results for the development of materials both in the local context and in general after each section there are editorial comments highlighting the issues emerging from the research and there is a conclusion which connects the findings of the various chapters and makes suggestions both for future research and for the principled development of materials for 12 learners the book will be suitable for teachers materials developers academics and students in post graduate courses in applied linguistics in tefl tesol and in the teaching of other languages as an 12 the book offers additional reading in areas not covered by existing texts on nigerian law and will be useful not only to students but to practitioners and researchers seeking information on aspects of nigerian law the beauty of themes on the nigerian legal system lies in two most appealing facts one that it is a contribution from learned authors who are not only specialists in the specific area of nigerian law but may also be found in institutions of learning throughout the length of breadth of the country and two the authors have written in simple easy to understand language and we hope this will help this book is highly recommended
